

afikcja 2022

[some photos are illustrative]

I was born in 1975 in Poland. My father was a drummer and the first sounds on the organ I made as a little boy.

My uncle Wojciech Bronowski, was a theatre manager in a big city [Rybnik] and I used to go to jazz concerts on 'Silesian Jazz Meeting'.

I became a reggae fan around 1988. Before that, I started playing electric organ from around 1982. Then I played accordion

from around 1989, drums

from 1990, keyboard

and bass

from 1991, and then other instruments

as well. I started making music since 1991. I was interested in reggae, dub, techno, ambient, jazz, orient, punk, metal, choir music, etc.

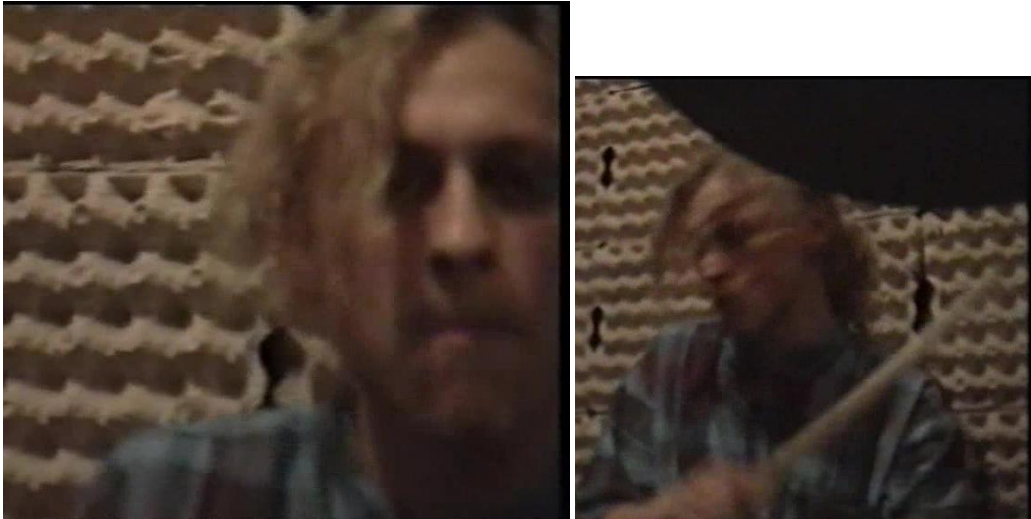

I've been friends with projects such as Stage of Unity, Tank Lion, Vibes n Power, Credon, Będzie Dobrze, and Jafia Namuel.

I have played in various projects, I will mention my „grzeński/rasta soldier/Mental Kite”[1992-2022], „the key”[1995-1996], „szeol”[1992], „20 minut”[1992], „Kreuzburg”[1994 with Tom Wójcik], or projects with Kamil Skwara[1995-1996], Waldemar Włodarski “Włodar”[1992], Kris Pietrzykowski[1992], David Ciesielski[1992]and Łukasz Krupicki[1991].

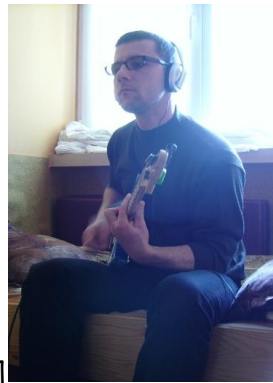

My band „grzeński/rasta soldier/Mental Kite” had its own compositions, mainly of afikcja [keyboard, guitar, percussion, drums, vocal, the melodica, mix] with a large participation of Grzegorz Strzelczyk [bass, mix] and Tom Kirszt [guitar, percussion] and vocalists or other musicians appeared rather occasionally.

Mental Kite featured [1992-2010], among others:

Tom König 'King David' [from "Vibes'n'Power", "Tank Lion", or "Kreuzburg"],

Kamil Krawiec

Kris Kubiak 'Kristafari' [from "Stage of Unity", "Rasta Warrior", or "Miki Mousoleum"],

Adam Zarucki 'Puma' [from "Stage of Unity" or "Vibes'n'Power"],

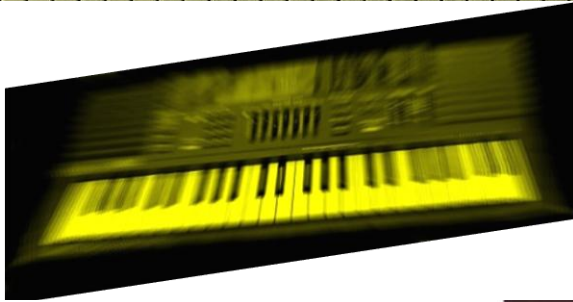

Kamil Skwara,
Łukasz Krupicki, and Katarzyna Bragula.

The band created reggae, dub, techno, jazz and similar music in a home amateur studio.
We recorded on a cassette recorder

[above, the cassette with the recording of the band "Mental Kite/rasta soldier" from 1994, made by Adam Zarucki]

Few recordings have survived from over 12 recording sessions.

In 2010 „Mental Kite” make a album „Uwolnienie[in 2022 'assertiveness against evil']” with afikeja, Tom Kirszt and Kris Kubiak 'Kristafari'. I did the music in the MIDI

> MIDI  on the computer and additionally I played the guitar and sang, Kris sang and Tom played the guitar.

In this band, I learned to play mystical music [that's where it started in 1994]. That was the most important thing to me.

Actually, project „Mental Kite" lived in our minds until 2022, when there were theoretical plans to record together. That would give continuity from 1992, 30 years.

Since 1995, I don't identify with the reggae/'rasta' ideology and I reject smoking marijuana.

Since 1996, I chose to do solo work.

For me it's like this: since 1996 I don't play with anyone[I refuse all projects], and the exception is the reconstruction of old recordings of my bands , as a gratitude for the nice beginnings, which means I can only work musically with old colleagues["mental kite" and friends].

I decided to do a solo project when it turned out that I was a studio musician and not a stage musician. Mystical music needs specific conditions and that's why home studio and solo project is the best option. This is music made especially for headphones

I will describe tracks not entirely mine, so copyright is unclear in 100%[from me it is public domain].

Track „Afikcja04 ja jestem Absolut - I am the Absolute[16.11.2009]  " I originally did in 1995 and it was later performed by my band "Mental Kite" with the title: „this is land of my dreams".

I programmed the track on MIDI  with a vocal sample. I did it for several months, finishing the mix on November 16, 2009.

[above, single tracks from „Afikcja04 ja jestem Absolut - I am the Absolute", here from October 11, 2009] Track „Afikcja05 nie to - it does not[30.4.2010]  " is based on a fragment of Fryderyk Chopin's piano sonata in B flat minor, Op. 35, probably composed in 1839 at Nohant on the basis of earlier ideas.

Track „Afikcja07 mity religijne - religious myths[2012]” , pre-named „the key to a deeper life” has a long history. The basis of the piece is an older music from the 1995 band „the key” and specifically the bass of Grzegorz Strzelczyk[I played drums there and together we came up with this song and I didn't want it to be lost and that's why I sentimentally inserted it].

Text „Afikcja04 real progress 4.6.2014 ”:

„Oh, fresh consciousness!!!

Is needed independent research without [the] control of corporations and their politicians and media, and professors and [their] deceitful propaganda.

You must escape from school, because public school is the destruction of your mind and your mentality.

You must find real wisdom, in silence and freedom for good life of you and everybody.

First you must find what is only for yourself; your real reality without people; only you and real research on any subject.

You will find [the] natural intellect and individual research, because only this is real progress.

Maybe you will find the quantum perception and [the] union of everything beyond time, nondual reality of Infinity, or another science (...)

The deepest knowledge. Only above mater, timeless, non-dual, not fictional experience. Rapid glare[clarity] and liberation.”<sup>[the end]</sup>

Text of the song “French Revolution”, trying to actualize the atmosphere of that time:

Biedni przełammy kontrolę myśli i zawalczmy o dobrobyt nas wszystkich.

Poor [people], let's break our mind control and fight for the welfare of all us.

Włóżmy trud w ład społecznej sprawiedliwości, swobodnego życia dla globalnej ziemskiej wspólnoty.

Let us put effort into the order of social justice, free life for the global earth community.

Złammy luksus dla nielicznych, przesyć dóbr dla garstki z naszej biedy.

Let us break the luxury of the few, the surplus of goods for the handful, what giving our poverty.

Nie marnujmy sił dla budowy przepychu jednych i wyzysku całej reszty.

Let us not waste our energies in building the fortune of some and exploiting all the rest.

Przestań harować dla elit i nie szkół się dla ich kariery jako trybik maszyny śmierci.

Don't toil for the elite, and don't study for their careers, as a death machine gear.

Przestań nikczemnie marzyć o karierze, która musi być tylko dla nielicznych, bo legitymujesz system w którym słabi giną.

Stop wickedly dreaming of a career that only has to be for the few, because you legitimize a system in which the weak die.

Zacznij walczyć o dostatek, dla każdego, więc i ciebie.

Start fighting for abundance for everyone, so also for you.

Zniszczmy „obóz koncentracyjny” w którym tkwimy, zamiast pchać się w nim na „kapo”.

Let's destroy the "concentration camp" in which we are stuck, instead of go as the "kapo[prisoner functionary]" in it.

Nowy ład, wiosna ludów, gdzie nie ma akceptacji biedy i podziału na panów i ubogą większość.

The new order, the springtime[renovation] of peoples, where there is no acceptance of poverty and no division into lords and a poor majority.

Gdy się szkolisz według ich zasad, przedłużasz życie upadającej maszyny zbrodni i wykluczeń wielu i wzmacniasz system zagłady planety, końca zwierząt, przyrody i nas wszystkich.

As you study according to their principles, you extend the life of the declining machinery of crime and exclusion of many, and strengthen the system of planet destruction, the end of animals, nature and all of us.

Stajesz się bezwolnym i grzecznym bandytą, ubranym w maseczkę poczciwości, gdy pod pozorem dobra współtworzysz nierówny system, bezlitosny dla słabszych.

You become a passive and polite bandit, dressed in a mask of goodness, when you co-create an unequal system under the guise of good, ruthless for the weaker.

Jesteś „kapo”, nadzorcą niewolników z pejczem w ręce i w garniturku z krawatem.

You are a "kapo", a slave overseer with a whip in his hand and in a suit with tie.

I ty jesteś tym systemem i masz krew na rękach, a co wysyłasz to wraca.

And you are this system and you have blood on your hands and what you send, it comes back.

Nie masz wymówek w dniu sądu, za zły czyn spotka cię słuszna kara.

You have no excuses on judgment day, you will be fairly punished for your wrongdoing.

Odpowiadasz za to i bój się , bo ta „tama” w końcu pęknie, a ty zatonesz w otchłani gniewu, mając na sobie ból nas wszystkich.

It is your responsibility and so it will be your fear, because this "dam" will eventually burst and you will sink into the abyss of anger , having the pain of us all on you.

Stado obłąkańców pędzi w swym szaleństwie w przepaść; czy i ty nie jesteś jednym z nich?

The herd of madmen is rushing in its craze to the abyss[chasm]; are you not one of them?

Jeśli tak, bój się, niszczysz innych, więc i siebie, bo jedni wszyscy jesteśmy.

If so, be afraid, you destroy others and so also yourself, because we are all one.

Co wysyłasz powraca, tak czy owak, sprawiedliwości dziejowej nie oszukasz , nawet gdy mamisz siebie propagandą .

What you send, it returns. Anyhow, you cannot deceive historical justice, even when you deceive yourself of propaganda.

Sąd i gilotyna dla „stołków”, to gilotyna dla przyczyn niewoli.

Trybunały i gilotyna, tylko ona nas oczyści.

The judgment, and the guillotine for the "stools[high positions]", is the guillotine for the root of captivity. The tribunals and the guillotine, only it will cleanse us.

Koniec rządów i pseudo praw elit, koniec propagandy i ubezwłasnowolnienia, koniec wyzysku i mrzonek o awansie, koniec elit, koniec matolących szkół, watykanu , fałszywych masmediów i bandyckich polityków, to konieczna rewolucja, bo jeśli nie, to koniec ziemi zniszczonej przez ich przemysł, to śmierć głodowa i totalny wyzysk, getta dla biednych i wymieranie niepełnosprawnych, śmierć, głód, zaraza, choroby, depresja, religijna ciemnota, propagandowe manipulacje, pranie mózgu w szkołach i wszystko to, co oni nam tworzą dzień za dniem, a my jak barany prowadzone na rzeź, jemy z ich ręki i czekamy na koniec nas i naszych dzieci i wnuków, jak tchórze idący biernie do „gazu”.

The end of rule and pseudo-rights of the elites, the end of propaganda and incapacitation, the end of exploitation and the dreams of promotion, the end of the elite, the end of brainwashing in the schools, the end of the vatican and the end of propaganda's media and bad politicians, it is a necessary revolution, because if not, then the end of the land destroyed by their industry, is death by starvation and total exploitation, ghettos for the poor and the extinction of the disabled, death, hunger, plague, disease, depression, religious ignorance, propaganda manipulations, brainwashing in schools and all that they create for us day by day, and we as sheep go to the slaughter, we eat from their hands and wait for the end of us and our children and grandchildren, as cowards passively going to the "gas[chamber]".

Gilotyna zetnie łeb systemu biedy i krzywdy, gilotyna, gdy trybunał wymierzy śmierć za śmierć, ból za ból, nieszczęście za nieszczęście.

The guillotine will cut the head of the poverty and harm system, the guillotine, when the tribunal will judge death for death, pain for pain, misery for misery.

Miara się przebrała i jedynie walka pozostała.

All boundaries were exceeded and only the fight remained.

Zbyt wiele ofiar pożarły zachłanne i butne elity, by teraz powiedzieć im że jest super i że nie ma problemu.

Too many victims have been devoured by the greedy and arrogant elites, to tell them now that it's alright and that it's no problem.

Czara goryczy milion razy się przelała, gdy dzieci z zespołem Downa wymierały z głodu, a ci topili się w morzu wina na swych prywatnych wyspach, uprawiając rozpustę z prostytutkami i rozbijając dla zabawy swoje jachty i luksusowe samochody.

The goblet of bitterness spilled a million times, when children with Down's syndrome was starved to death, and elites was drown themselves in the sea of wine on their private islands, and also [elites] was entertaining with prostitutes and smashing their yachts and luxury cars for fun.

Stanowczo i mocno zerwijmy się z kolan i zrobmy z nimi porządek, bo inaczej nie ma nas wszystkich.

Let us firmly and firmly get off our knees and let's end the elites, because otherwise we are all lost.

Co by nie było, gdy ich nie będzie, to tak czy owak korzyść nas wszystkich ponad podziałami.

Whatever it would be, if the elites disappear, anyway it is benefit us all despite our divisions .

Rewolucja się zaczyna, kto nie tchórzem niech się zjednoczy we wspólną siłę , zmiatającą garstkę naszych panów, rewolucja dla odważnych, śmierć męczeńska lub zwycięstwo nad systemem, w którym życie jest porażką , gdy lepiej walczyć jak bohater niż w niewoli gnić do marnego końca.

The revolution begins, whoever not be cowardly, let unite, into a common force sweeping away a handful of our masters; a revolution for the brave, a martyr's death or victory over a system in which life is a failure, when it is better to fight like a hero, than in captivity to rot to a miserable end.

Rewolucja, gilotyna, trybunał, sprawiedliwość, rozbiórka, budowa, zdobywany dobrobyt, godne życie dla każdego, więc i ciebie, bo inaczej nie ma nas wszystkich.

Revolution, guillotine, tribunal, justice, demolition, construction, prosperity gained, a dignified life for everyone, so also you too, because otherwise we are all lost.

Albo my, albo oni elity, politycy, miliarderzy, korporacje, banki, media, watykan, szkoły, sądy, policja, armia, biznes medyczny, urzędy.

Either us or them - elites, politicians, billionaires, corporations, banks, media, vatican, schools, law courts , police, army, medical business, offices.

Koniec z tym, to już było i niech powstanie nowy ład, nowe media, policja, medycyna, kształcenie, neutralność mistyczna, wolność dla innych, a więc i ciebie.

End, it was; and let there be a new order, new media, [friendly] police, [true] medicine, [self] education, mystical neutrality, freedom for everyone, and therefore also for you.

Gilotyna dla nikczemnych, by nie psuli naszej ziemi, byśmy mogli żyć godnie bez fałszu i biedy, by jak koszmar, tak tamto minęło.

A guillotine for the wicked, that they would not destroy our land, that we could live with dignity without falsehood and poverty, so that the system could disappear, as the nightmare .

Gilotyna nas wyczyści, wyplewmy te chwasty, bez litości dla bezlitosnych, tak jak oni nam, tak i my im oddajmy.

The guillotine will clean us; let's tear up "weeds", having no mercy for the merciless; just as the elites do with us, let us do the same with the elites.

Gilotyna, bo inaczej wróci                      stare    i będzie    jak zawsze.

Guillotine, otherwise it will come back old evil and it will be as always.

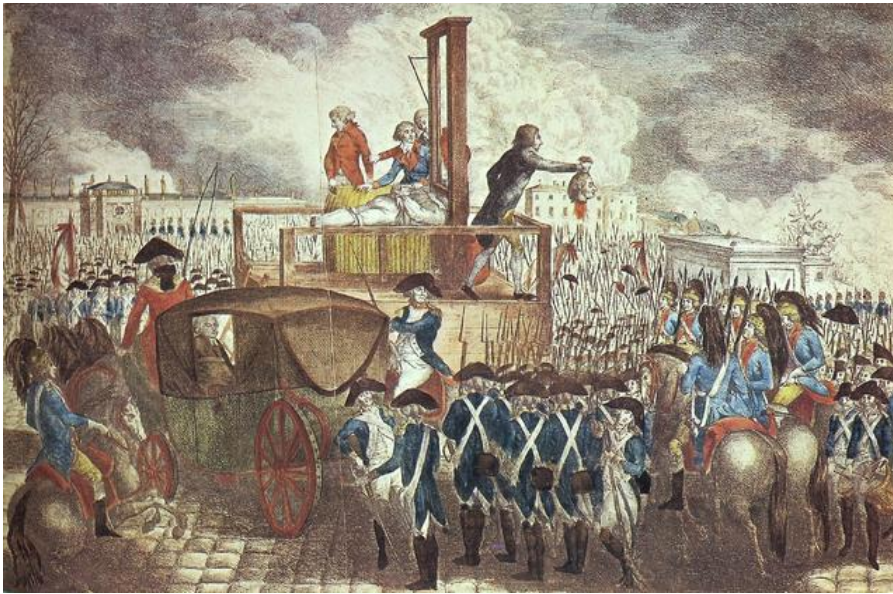

Świat polityczny, uniwersytecki, kościelny i międzynarodowa finansjera, w tym korporacje, banki, biznes medyczno farmaceutyczny[w tym szczepionkowy], show biznes, masmedia, kreują się na niezbędnych, podczas gdy jedynie do czego są oni nam niezbędni, to do stawienia się przed trybunałami, by osądzić ich rozliczne zbrodnie przeciwko środowisku, zwierzętom i ludziom, by dostali to, co im się należy, śmierć za śmierć, ból za ból, by gilotyna dała jasność co jest dobre a co złe.

The political, university and church world, as well as the international finance elite, including corporations, banks, medical and pharmaceutical business [including vaccines business], show business, mass media, they all pretend to be indispensable, while only actual reason for which elites are indispensable for us, is to appear their before tribunals to judge their numerous crimes against the environment, animals and people, to get what they deserve, death for death, pain for pain, so that the guillotine gives clarity about what is right and what is wrong.

I pamiętajcie, walczymy do końca, naszego lub ich.

And this must be remembered, we fight to the end, of ours or theirs.

Text “Afikcja02 prawidłowość - Laws [principles by which reality functions]  ”.

The Deepest Dimension [the Absolute] shapes the wholeness [He is All and through all and in all of us].

The dual illusion we experience [when seeing that I am separate from others], it is the reality of right judgment.

And the illusory reality is controlled by the consequences of our deeds.

The Deepest Dimension shapes the wholeness - which judges everyone.

The dual illusion we experience, it is the sum of our previous deeds.

Bad deed shapes bad thought, a bad thought shapes bad dimension of the dual illusion we experience and thus this illusion becomes a nightmare

and the illusory reality is controlled by the consequences of our deeds.

The Deepest Dimension shapes the wholeness, and by grace removes the chaos of the dual illusion we experience , which becomes a nightmare, and by grace removes the lack of understanding of right judgment and the consequences of our deeds and by grace removes the deeds and thoughts, and by grace removes the dual illusion we experience.

And as a result: I am - the Deepest Dimension<sup>"[the end]</sup>

In ordinary people, memory controls 99% of experience.

We repeat the rigid projection of traces which creates the illusion that almost everything we experience is 'unchanging', 'simple', 'boring'.

Nothing gets through to us except what people have implanted in us from birth to the age of ten.

As a result of previous upbringing, we become slaves to rigid thoughts that form a matrix destroying direct experience.

The luminous traces collected in memory , give a simplified meaning to the sensory experience.

When you turn on song, you don't hear music directly, but you start mentally projecting traces of music you've remembered since birth.

Memory causes us to hear nothing new, only what we think we hear.

But if we listen to mystical music that is different, mystical traces are created and the experience is no longer controlled by these psychedelic traces. This allows to experience quantum matter directly without the constraint of thought, penetrating beyond the scheme of memory, breaking out of the bondage of collective hypnosis .

When we release ourselves into mystical ecstasy, we achieve a more direct experience of multi-world, which is luminous energy manifesting itself in abstract reality, allowing us to discover real reality, identical to the Absolute.

Musical meditation with silence[ 'emptiness' of material illusion], cleanses us from the projection of human illusion and we know that: 'I am the Absolute'.

In order to perceive the calming 'emptiness' in music and meditation, it is necessary to break the human projection, by bringing thoughts out of balance. That is why psychedelic music surprises the mind with a mystical text, sound, space, polyrhythm, different harmony or melody. Then the disturbed projection of traces stops working and can no longer distort the mystical music, because it is too difficult.

Thoughts disappear unmasked as deception. Thoughts are pictorial traces gathered from previous experiences and simplifying the new experience , but now this no longer works because the mystical dimension is better than illusions. When the listener is freed from thoughts, he experiences his own deeper being.

When we are isolated from other people for a few days and rest for a long time[without music and mass media], the brain has a lot of strength and the sugars contained in plants nourish it and we have closed eyes in a dark room and we listen to psychedelic sound on headphones. The brain will use all its energy only to listen.

This information, which we are able to receive, is not divided between the eyes and hearing, but only used to create images of music. Hundreds of thousands of musical information per second reach the brain through the ears. And under such conditions it is possible to exceed 200 musical information per second, because the brain, rested and nourished, no longer needs to save so drastically, and the isolation has caused a restoration of the original sensory sensitivity.

Musical meditation will make something 'new' come to the brain, when more than 200 information per second are transmitted differently than usual due to not using sight. And the brain has to give such information the meaning of something 'important' and cannot simplify such music by means of a 'mechanical' memory.

Memory and mind were limited in the brain by lack of plant sugars, fatigue and stress and the mind usually gave a prepared simplification not requiring much energy [99% of the memory experience].

And with such a musical meditation, areas in the brain responsible for experiencing 'new' will open up and this will cause schematic projections based on old neuron connections in the brain to cease. The brain will free itself from the schema and build new neuron connections.

All perception is transformed forever[metamorphosis]. Perception is no longer "materialistic". It is perception quantum, luminous, loose, not schematic, infinitely complex and each time different, showing the infinite intelligence of the Absolute.

Music has irrevocably destroyed the controller relying on memory, and the mind begins to perceive the only real reality beyond time and beyond matter.

Most often, the only way to verify one's erroneous perception of the world is to introduce a cognitive crisis into the brain, which will destroy the non-scientific fiction and give a chance for a new type of perception to emerge.

During the meditative ecstasy we detach ourselves from the illusory time and matter and, having done so, we return and look at the material illusion anew. When someone stays in a smoky room for a very long time, he no longer feels the stinking smoke [he becomes accustomed to the evil]. Then, when he goes out and breathes fresh air and returns to the room after a long time, he clearly smells the stench and ventilates the room. The same happens during musical ecstasy, when afterwards we observe the world from a new perspective.

Then, in the silencing 'emptiness', we see the evil in ourselves and change for the better. This causes us to approach the infinite Absolute and discover our own Oneness in Him, as "I am the Absolute". This is 'advaita', non-dual mentality that causes fullness of happiness.

I wrote briefly, and every music seeker without dogmas, must build an audio meditation for himself, according to his needs [just like someone selects their shoe size].

The Absolute guides mystics directly, giving them an inner 'teacher', and other things are just loose tools that can be used, or not used.

There should be less is people[including me] and more of the Absolute within, because that gives real progress.
